WASHINGTON, June 2, 2009—The World Bank today announced that it has debarred a Ukrainian non-governmental organization, a Turkish firm and two individuals for having engaged in fraud in relation to World Bank-financed projects. The debarments, which resulted from investigations by the World Bank's Integrity Vice Presidency (IVP), are part of the Bank's broader anti-corruption agenda.

Leonard McCarthy, Vice President for Integrity for the World Bank Group, said, "The outcome of these cases demonstrates that the Bank is making significant strides in addressing fraud and corruption, which is especially important given the current economic crisis."

Two Ukrainian entities debarred
The Ukrainian Centre for International Integration (UCI) is ineligible to be awarded a contract under a Bank Group-financed operation for a period of two years, and its former Executive Director, Natalia Yasko, is debarred for a period of three years.
